

E.V. Sparrow's Book Club Questions for Readers:

Have you ever wished to escape a terrible situation, but had no hope?

What is your worst loss?

Were you raised in a church?

Are there any doubts Mick has that you also have?

Do you hold onto any family superstitions from childhood?

What twist in this story was unexpected?

How much do you know about American railroad history?

Was Molly's plight strange to you, or is it understandable?

Have you ever witnessed miraculous or unexplainable events?

Do you believe God answers your prayers?

Did you learn anything unexpected in our Irish American's history?

My hope for readers of this book is to discover your worth in your Creator's esteem. Especially during the darkest times of your life.
